

INTERIOR DESIGN COALITION OF WISCONSIN

Established in 1988 to unite the interior design profession in the state of Wisconsin for the purpose of legislative awareness and action that protects the health, safety, and welfare of the public.

2010 MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Interior Design Coalition of Wisconsin (IDCW) is the single organization representing the interior designers on legislative and regulatory issues in the state of Wisconsin. Your participation as an IDCW member will give you a voice in shaping the future of the interior design profession and its role in protecting the health, safety and welfare of the public.

Membership dues help the Coalition to:

- provide a unified voice for the interior design profession,
- advocate for your interests in the legislative and regulatory efforts of the state,
- communicate issues affecting the business of interior design,
- develop continuing education programs which comply with state requirements for Wisconsin registered interior designers.

Join us, now!

Annual membership runs from January 1 through December 31. New members are encouraged to join at any time throughout the year.

Membership Categories (Check one):

- $30/year- Designers, pre-professionals, educators, industry partners and friends who are actively engaged in the interior design profession.
- $100/year- Sponsors and benefactors who would like to provide additional financial support.
- $10/year- Students who are currently enrolled or have recently graduated from an interior design program.
